Dear Dana,

We deeply appreciate International Connections of Houston's support of the patients, programs and mission of Texas Children's Hospital, and we thank you for your recent gift of blankets, toys, toiletries, crayons, books, play-Doh, and T shirts to West Campus.

As the largest freestanding pediatric hospital in the nation, Texas Children's is dedicated to providing the finest possible patient care, education, and research to our patients. It is through the generosity of people like you that we have been able to maintain the highest level of excellence that routinely ranks us among the top pediatric medical institutions in the nation by U.S. News & World Report.

We appreciate all that you have done to make a hospital stay a little easier for our patients and their families.

Sincerely,

Cindy Fox
